

Eco Gifting

If you are trying to be more sustainable over Christmas, you don't have to cut back on gift-giving. You can just get a bit creative with your gifts and instil some joy with a zero-waste or sustainable gift.

Some eco gift ideas:

Gift an experience - how about a sewing or baking course? Stimulate a new hobby!

Inspire a new skill – gardening, a new language are just some new skills to enjoy and provide a new purpose.

Adopt an animal – help protect endangered species and learn more about the world around us.

Gift a charity membership – support crucial work and empower a cause close to your heart.

Buy from charity and second-hand shops – pick up a unique gift and enjoy a pre-loved book, vinyl record and clothes.

Shop local – reduce air miles and support local small businesses.

Upcycle – give new life to a piece of treasured furniture or jewellery.

DIY - Whether you bake, sew or paint, get creative this Christmas a bespoke gift to treasure.

Your time - nothing is more important at Christmas than the people we spend it with. Give your time and enjoy some wonderful walks in nature, a coffee date, quality time with loved ones this Christmas.

Remember - Reduce, Reuse, Recycle
